Congratulates SWFQG
on its 15th Biennial Show
You inspire us!

FROM THE PRESIDENT
WELCOME
QUILT LOVERS!

We are so happy that you have decided to come to our Biennial Quilt Show. Our show theme is "Every Quilt Has a Story", and I encourage you think about the story behind the quilts hung in our show. They are many and varied. Hopefully they will inspire you in your quilting journey. We have several "special exhibits" in the show, again each telling a story that the maker wanted to share with you. Our guild quilt challenge was "What is Your Story". The member was challenged to share a memorable moment in their life via a quilt block or blocks. Another exhibit is presented by the group of our members who meet at the Lakes Library each month. Their challenge was to pick a favorite book and present it in quilt form. We also have an exhibit which "Celebrates America's 250 Years". Each quilt represents either America or its people to the maker. As usual we have a Boutique full of items made by our members. Check it out. Our Quilt Bazaar has returned this year. These quilts are made by our members and are looking for new homes where they will be loved. This year we added a new category, "Limited Editions". These are special "one of kind" items which are available for immediate sale. We have a number of interesting vendors at the show also. Please be sure to stop and see them, taking the opportunity to shop with them as you are wandering around the show. If you are interested in more information about our guild, please stop by our membership table. We have an active guild and would love to have you join us. Enjoy our show, and be sure to tell your friends about it. Sincerely, Linda Drisko - President SWFQG

About the Southwest Florida Quilters Guild

The Southwest Florida Quilters Guild Inc, a non-profit organization devoted to promoting the art and heritage of quilting, was formed in 1992 and has over 190 members. Many of us are year round residents, but our tropical climate attracts people from all over, and we have a diverse membership with new people joining all the time.

We encourage you to come join us too.

Purpose of the Guild:

- * Preserve the heritage of quilting
- * Be a source of information and inspiration for Quilters
- * Encourage excellence in quilting
- * Be of service to the community
- * Provide fellowship to people with a common interest

We have monthly meetings and monthly Saturday Fun Days where Guild members share their talents and classes led by professional instructors, There are annual Retreats where you can dedicate your entire day (and evening) to quilting.

We meet the third Tuesday of each month at 6:30 pm at the North Fort Myers Recreation Center, 2000 North Recreation Park Way, North Fort Myers.

MEET OUR SHOW JUDGE Maribeth Schmit

Maribeth is an accomplished fiber artist, quilting instructor, author and NQA Certified Quilt Judge.

Offering a variety of quilting and fiber-related workshops and lectures, she actively judges quilt competitions across the country. Opportunities have taken her to: Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Florida, North Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Tennessee, Texas, North and South Carolina, Arkansas, Asia and Europe. Her art quilts have been exhibited in museums, national shows and fine art galleries.

- Maribeth has been judging since 2004 and has evaluated over 19,000 show entries. She is well-versed in evaluating any machine or hand wrought pieces as well as traditional and art quilts.
- Maribeth is qualified to evaluate NACQ Masterpiece Quilts and is on the faculty of qualified instructors for the "NACQ Two-Day Introduction to Judging Seminar."

Maribeth has served as:

- Treasurer for the Wisconsin Quilt Study Group
- Communications Chair for the National Association of Certified Quilt Judges
- Documentation Chair at the Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Fiber Arts
- Correspondent Docent with the DAR Museum, Washington D.C.
- Director on the Board of Wisconsin Quilters, Inc.
- Director on the Board of the Wisconsin Quilt History Project

As you browse the aisles of quilts and vendors, you will notice QR codes scattered throughout. Some of these codes will provide greater information on the Qualifications a quilt had to meet to be displayed in a particular category. Others will provide a quick link to our website where you can learn more about our Guild. This one will provide a price listing for the quilts our members are offering for sale. Simply point your camera phone at the code and press the link that pops on your screen. Happy browsing.

AT THE SHOW!!

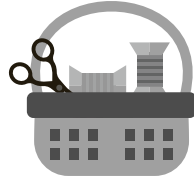

Boutique

Our Boutique has something for everyone, including quilts in all sizes and other handmade items created by our members, as well as new and preloved patterns, notions, and tools. Don't forget to check out our supply of UFO's for a project that can be completed in a short time.

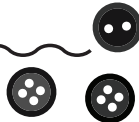

Raffle Baskets

Come see the wide array of baskets ready for your enjoyment! For $5 you receive 25 tickets toward the baskets of your choice. Drop each ticket in a container in front of your favorite baskets to ensure you have a chance at winning. We keep a copy of your ticket number so you do not need to be present to win. Check it out and have fun anticipating lots of new projects! Basket raffle closes on Saturday at 1pm to allow time to contact the winners.

Bazaar

The Bazaar presents both our members and our visitors with a unique opportunity to display and purchase new or like new quilts. These are items our members have completed in the past but either because they have been in a previous show, or their completion date is more than two years ago, they do not qualify for display in the show. Visitors have an opportunity to browse and purchase these quilts. Twenty percent of the purchase price goes to support the charitable efforts of the Guild.

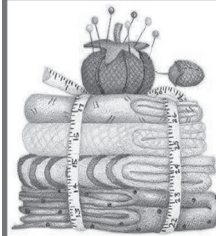

Limited Editions

Limited Editions has replaced the previous Silent Auction. These are higher cost items with a "buy it now" price. This enables visitors to leave the show with their item in hand rather than requiring them to wait and see if theirs was the winning bid and then requiring them to return at a later time to pick up their item.

SEE YOU THERE!

2026 Guild Challenge

Members were challenged to create one or two mini-quilts (12.5"-12.5") that show us a moment in their life, maybe a story or an event. Quilters could use any technique or design. They did, however, have to include one of these three blocks: A half-square triangle, a nine-patch or a log cabin.

We received 12 entries. Voting took place at our annual Holiday Party. Over 60 members voted. Ballots contained 4 categories. A fifth award was given to the entry that received the most votes..

Category Winners:

Most Creative Interpretation of,
"What is my Story?" — Lyn Bruner
Best Use of Color — Karen Mars
Best Technique — Gail Klepper
This Quilt Makes Me Smile — Joyce Grande
Most Overall Votes — Barb Reinken

*Congratulations to all our creative entries.

Rays of Sunshine

The 'Ray of Sunshine Award' is bestowed annually upon a special member and these members are honored biennially at our Quilt Show. The 2024 & 2025 Rays of Sunshine are Michelle Gregg and Karen Mars respectively. They have been outstanding in serving the guild and community. Michelle, Karen and previous winners embody what the SWFQG stands for:

- * Preserve the heritage of quilting
- * Be a source of information and inspiration for Quilters
- * Encourage excellence in quilting
- * Be of service to the community
- * Provide fellowship to people with a common interest

The people worthy of this reward are the backbone of our guild. These are the people who organize and hold our meetings, teach all aspects of quilting, entertain the members, find venues for our meetings and classes, organize quilt shows, keep our licenses up to date, collect the dues, pay the bills and keep us informed about the guild and its activities and opportunities. They have given much of their time and talent to make your time in the guild a pleasure.

Stop by the "Ray of Sunshine" booth to view some of their quilt work.

CONGRATS!!

Community Service

Our Community Service Committee is a very important one. Each month our members give to the committee quilts of different sizes and patterns that they have made. The committee then counts and separates them based on where they will go. Quilts are then delivered to various agencies and hospitals. Some of the recipient places are: Golisano Children's Hospital, Guardian ad Litem Foundation, Ronald McDonald House, Hope Hospice, Quilts of Valor and Early Head Start.

MEET OUR GUEST APPRAISER Larry Cain

We would like to welcome our guest appraiser to the show, Larry Cain. He spends many hours volunteering his time at Edison Ford Winter Estates.

There is a $50.00 appraisal fee per quilt – payment can be made by check, cash or Zelle.

All fees will be donated and split between the Edison Ford Winter Estates and the Southwest Florida Quilters Guild

Angel Members

The Southwest Florida Quilters Guild would like to hold in memory the guild members who have passed since our last show. Each of them brought to our guild a sparkle and a unique quilting ability that we will deeply miss. Coming from different parts of the country, they joined our guild and were active members for many years. This show and our guild members remember them fondly.
