

IT'S PLACEMAT POUCH VERSION 4!

Isn't she cute!!!

I can see all kinds of uses for this little cutie patootie! On the go diaper bag, perhaps? Or a cute little purse? What about a grab and go beach pouch? It's a great size and made from another quilted placemat, so the extra padding makes it ideal for all kinds of "Stuff" you need to carry around.

Measurements:

14" or bigger zipper

3 x 11 Piece of coordinating fabric

4 x 12" Piece of coordinating fabric

(2) 1" strips of heat n bond heavy interfacing

Attach zipper on short ends.

Fold bag in half with zipper in center (middle) Use ruler to measure for center.

Place a ribbon tab between zipper and back of bag. Sew across the top of bag.

Do the same with bottom of bag and flatten bag.

Turn bag wrong side out. Box corners of bottom of bag.

Form the triangle with each bottom corner, measure so each will be the same.

Sew Across the triangle and iron flat,

Turn bag right side out and place a few stitches inside to hold corners down.

Bag is done.

Comment [MAL1]:

